The purpose of the QEP is to develop critical readers through the use of meta-cognitive strategies.

DEFINITIONS

Critical reading is an active, reflective process of engaging in dialogue with texts of all modes. Critical readers purposefully analyze, evaluate, and synthesize texts based on disciplinary ways of constructing knowledge.

HOW CAN YOU DEVELOP CRITICAL READERS IN YOUR DISCIPLINE?

Professional development opportunities begin soon

Contact: lisa.bosley@eku.edu